

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JAMES & OLEVIA TO CELEBRATE THE RELEASE OF "READY FOR YOU VOL. 1"
WITH A SPECIAL MUSIC RELEASE EXPERIENCE IN VALLEJO

VALLEJO, CALIFORNIA — James & Olevia, a Northern California Gospel recording duo known for their passion for worship, ministry, and community impact, will celebrate the release of their newest music project, "Ready For You Vol. 1," with a special Music Release Experience on Saturday, May 30, 2026, at 5:00 PM at Abundant Life Worship Center in Vallejo, California.

The event will bring together supporters, community leaders, pastors, media representatives, and music lovers for an evening of worship, testimony, and live music as James & Olevia share the songs and stories behind their newest release.

For James & Olevia, the project represents more than music. It reflects years of ministry, perseverance, and a commitment to creating songs that encourage people to draw closer to God while inspiring hope, faith, and purpose.

"Ready For You Vol. 1" features a collection of worship-centered songs that highlight the duo's heart for authentic ministry and their desire to leave a lasting legacy of worship for future generations.

James Williams serves as Senior Pastor of GracePointe Faith Church in American Canyon, California, while also working as an educator and community leader. Olevia Williams is a gifted vocalist, worship leader, and minister whose passion for encouraging people through music has impacted audiences throughout Northern California and beyond.

Together, James & Olevia have become known for combining heartfelt worship, strong vocal performances, and a message of faith that resonates across generations.

The Music Release Experience will feature:

- Live musical performances
- Special guest appearances
- Community and ministry leaders
- Opportunities to connect with James & Olevia
- Exclusive access to release materials and partner experiences
